ACCESSOIRES

Cool, stylish, künstlerisch und einfach wunderschön

Cool, stylish, trendy and so beautiful

These are the small things that make life more beautiful – those who share this vision with Coco will love her website. On her personal Online Shop the 25-year-old business student sells beautiful jewelry. Her collection includes pieces of her own designs, but also patterns which fascinated her during her visits to the fashion shows in Munich to Paris and to Hong Kong. Each piece is high-quality and handmade.

Coco offers accessoires of the Californian label Ettika for example or retro bags of J. Kushman from L. A. and eye-catching colorful Triwa watches.
